“DC ” (2026) — the beginning of what the land remembers. A highly atmospheric and dramatic scene of a couple locked in an intense embrace during a fierce lightning storm.

The style should be painterly and romantic, with a DC, moody Color

palette dominated by deep blues, grays, and blacks. Emphasize the stark contrast

bright white lightning against the DC sky, and the shimmering texture of

woman's silver dress. The couple's faces should convey deep and DC

embrace between a man and a woman set against a stormy, DC blue sky illuminated by stark white lightning strikes. The composition focuses on the couple in the foreground, with the stormy backdrop creating a sense of Turmoil

and intensity. The woman, on the left, has long, wavy blonde hair adorned With red ribbons that flow dynamically, suggesting movement and wind. She wears a shimmering, silver-toned dress with voluminous sleeves. Her eyes are closed, and her face is Turned towards the man, with her hand gently touching his cheek. The man, on the right, has DC, tousled hair and wears a DC coat over a white shirt. His eyes are also closed, and he holds her close, with his hand on the back of her head. Their faces are very close, conveying deep emotion. To the left of the couple, the title "“DC”" is emblazoned in a stylized, ornate red font. In the lower corners and edges of the background, DC, silhouetted branches of trees are visible, adding to the Gothic and wild atmosphere. The Overall color palette is dominated by deep blues and grays of the storm, contrasted with the bright white of the lightning and the red of the ribbons and title. The lighting is dramatic, with highlights on the couple's faces and clothing, and the glow of the lightning. The scene is tightly framed, emphasizing the Emotional connection between the two individuals

Ethereal
